

Migration in the Margins of Europe

18-29 January 2019, NIA – IMES – VU Winter School, Greece

Winter School Program

Friday 18/01 Arrival

19.00-20.00 Introductory Meeting at NIA

Saturday 19/01

10.00-12.00 Tryfon Bampilis
Netherlands Institute of Athens, Scientific Coordinator of Program on Social and Political Sciences

Meanings of Migration in contemporary Greece

12.30- 14.00 Setting up Research Projects

Sunday 20/01

12.00-16.00 Flip Lindo, UvA

Discovering relationships on the move. A peripatetic exchange of views.

20.00-21.00 The Ethnofest special screenings on Migration A.

Monday 21/01

10.00-12.00 Katerina Rozakou, Independent researcher

Doing research on/in the "migration crisis": Ethical and methodological issues.

13.00-14.00 M.D. Apostolos Veizis

Director of Medical Operations
Support Unit Athens(SOMA), Doctors
Without Borders (MSF)

MSF responding to unmet medical and humanitarian needs of people on the move and stranded, experience and challenges.

20.00-21.00 The Ethnofest special screenings on Migration B.

Tuesday 22/01

10.00-12.00 Marica Rombou Levidi, University of the Aegean

"I am here to stay": Bodies out of place struggling to become bodies in place. A seminar about border violence focusing on the articulation of migration, gender, and national "sentiment" in a northern Greek borderland.

18.00-20.00 Arjang Omrani, Filmmaker

The politics and ethics of image making and collaboration with marginal people.

Wednesday 23/01

18.00-20.00 Barak Kalir, UvA/IMES

Implementing Apartheid: bureaucracy as a site of hope and shame.

Thursday 24/01

10.00-12.00 Ioana Vrabiescu, UvA

Returned "home": Sovereignty and citizenship in the bilateral police cooperation between France and Romania.

18.00-20.00 Giorgos Tsimouris, Panteion University

'The shift from "Albanophobia" to "islamophobia" in the era of "crisis": Faces of neoliberal governmentality in Greece'.

Friday 25/01

11.00-13.00 Dimitris Parsanoglou, Panteion University

The avatars of sovereignty and humanitarianism in the "post-crisis" European border regime.

20.00-21.00 The Ethnofest special screenings on Migration C.

Saturday 26/01

11.00-13.00 Celine Cantat, CEU

Neoliberal marginalisation and the criminalisation of migration and solidarity in Hungary and Serbia.

18.00–20.00 Dimitris Dalakoglou, VU Amsterdam

Sunday 27/01

13.00-16.00 Pafsanias Karathanasis, Tryfon Bambilis

Urban change and migration: the case of Kypseli

Monday 28/01

19.00-20.00 The Ethnofest special screenings on Migration D.

Tuesday 29/01

10.00-14.00 Student Presentations