

International Conference
"Re-framing the Migrant Situation in Europe.
Critical Issues in Policy-Making and Cross-disciplinary Approaches"

Organisers: Inter Alia - Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of Peloponnese

Dates: February 28th - March 1st, 2019

Venue: University of Peloponnese (1, Aristotelous str. and Leof. Athinon, 20132, Corinth), Rooms 1 & 2

Working language: English

Programme

Date	Time	Session	Description
February 28th	11:00-13:00	Morning Session	Non-formal learning activity Objects Telling the Stories of Outcasts*
	13:30-14:30		Lunch
	15:00-15:30		Welcome Addresses
	15:30-16:30	Keynote Speech	Patrick Taran President of Global Migration Policy Associates
	16:30-18:15	Afternoon Session 1	Panel 1 & Discussion: Aspects of EU Legal Framework on Migration "Third Country Nationals: Legal Framework, Challenges and Integration Policies" Moderator: To be announced soon. "The reconfiguration(s) of the EU border regime at the the aftermath of the 'refugee crisis'" Dimitris Parsanoglou , Adjunct Lecturer, Panteion University, Department of Social Policy "Illegal migration into Europe: How the EU has addressed the legal challenges" Konstantinos Magliveras , Professor of International Organizations, Department of Mediterranean Studies, University of the Aegean "Refugees and Threat Perception: Securitization vs Integrated Threat Theory approaches" Dr Nikos Lampas , Visiting Research Fellow, University of the Peloponnese "Intruders' or 'victims'? How the framing of a migration influx makes a (huge) difference: The case of Greece" Dr Sotiris Vadoros , Lecturer, Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of the Peloponnese "The persistent challenge of a meaningful integration policy in Greece" Eleni Takou , Deputy Director and Head of Advocacy of the HumanRights360
	18:15-18:30		Coffee break

The conference is organised in the context of the project 'The Citizens are United (TCAU)', that is co-funded by the 'Europe for Citizens' programme of the European Union.

	18:30-19:45	Afternoon session 2	Panel 2 & Discussion: Migration and Spatial Dynamics “Beyond the Technical Perception of Space: Understanding the Ways Migration Dynamics Are Challenging and Are Being Challenged by Spatial Patterns and Policies” Moderator: To be announced soon. “Social policies for Asylum Seekers in Greece: Examples of Housing and Social Services” Nikos Kourahanis, Post-Doctoral Researcher, Panteion University, Department of Social Policy “Experiences and Challenges from a Programme of Housing and Services for Asylum Seekers” Maria Malapetsa, Accommodation and Services Scheme for Asylum Seekers, Municipality of Athens
	19:45-20:30		Screening of the Short Documentary: “Dying for Europe” In presence of the director Nikos Pilos, PhotoJournalist-Filmmaker
	21:00-23:00		Dinner
March 1st	9:30-11:00	Morning session 1	Round table “Presentation of the Outcomes of the TCAU Project by the Partners”
	11:00-11:15		Coffee break
	11:15-12:45	Morning session 2	Workshop: Migration and Education “Challenging the Ethnocentric Educational System: The Role of Intercultural Education of the Local Communities in the Integration of Migrants and Refugees”
	13:00-14:00		Lunch
	14:30-15:30	Keynote Speech	Antal Orkeny Professor, Eotvos Lorand University of Budapest & President of Menedek, Hungarian Association for Migrants
	15:30-17:15	Afternoon session 1	Panel 3 & Discussion: Migration and the European Economies “Charting Potentials from the Migrant Inflow for European Economies” Moderator: Nikos Papakostas, Co-founder of Inter Alia “Perceptions on immigrants and work in 20 European Societies: Evidence from World Values Survey-7” Sokratis Koniordos, Professor, Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of the Peloponnese “Immigrant Economic Activity in Greece since 2000: the case of migrant entrepreneurship in wider Athens area” Alexandra Tragaki, Professor, Department of Geography, Harokopion University “Transnational Dynamics: The Economic Potential of Diasporas” Asteris Huliaras, Professor, Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of the Peloponnese “Labour Market Integration of Refugees and Asylum Seekers: Obstacles, Prospects and the practice of ACCMR” Ilektra Simitsi, Livelihoods Development IRC, Chair of the ACCMR Livelihood Committee, PhD Candidate at EU Law, Department of Law, Democritus University of Thrace
	17:15-17:30		Coffee break

The conference is organised in the context of the project ‘The Citizens are United (TCAU)’, that is co-funded by the ‘Europe for Citizens’ programme of the European Union.

	17:30-19:00	Afternoon session 2	Panel 4 & Discussion: Female Migration "Women Migrants and Refugees: Facing Gender-specific Challenges in Navigating Daily Life at Every Stage of the Migration Experience" Moderator: Manto Baboula (journalist) "Cultural integration in Greece - insights from the community of the Nigerian migrant women in Greece" Eugenia Vathakou, Dr., Vassiliki Lalagianni, Professor, Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of the Peloponnese "The females and the femininities: the non-male path of integration as an intersectional challenge" Elena-Olga Christidi, Psychologist, Psychotherapist, Scientific Coordinator for the Greek Programme for Certification of victims of torture (Metadrasi) "Gendered Spaces and Educational Expectations. The Case of Elliniko Camp in Athens" Arezu Rezain, PhD Candidate, Panteion University
--	-------------	---------------------	---

* Non-formal learning activity "Objects Telling the Stories of Outcasts" designed by GLAM Hack.

The conference is organised in the context of the project 'The Citizens are United (TCAU)', that is co-funded by the 'Europe for Citizens' programme of the European Union.